TAPIOCA STORIES DEBUTS AT ALA SHOWCASING A UNIQUE LATIN AMERICAN CHILDREN'S BOOKS COLLECTION IN SPANISH AND ENGLISH, BOOTH #1927Z5

Tapioca Stories is thrilled to announce its first participation at the 2024 American Library Association (ALA) Annual Conference, from June 28 to July 1 in San Diego, California.

At this conference, we are elated to share some of our most recent, delightful stories, including:

- Marcelo, Martelo, Marshmallow: The first English edition of the beloved Brazilian classic Marcelo, Marmelo, Martelo (1976), by esteemed children's book author Ruth Rocha, illustrated by Ana Matsusaki and translated by Tal Goldfajn
- Future and the Spanish translation Futuro: our inaugural dual-language publication by Maria Jose Ferrada and Mariana Alcantara
- Natura, our inaugural bilingual title, presented in both English and Spanish, by Maria Jose Ferrada and Mariana Alcantara

Tapioca Stories invites conference attendees to visit us at booth #1927Z5 in the Indie Press Pavilion to discover our unique selection of Latin American children's books and learn more about our mission to bring these enriching stories to young readers worldwide, helping them grow into more empathetic, perceptive, and thoughtful adults.
